The administration, the board . . . governors of our lives . . . .

ALDEN STUART — Superintendent of Schools

MR. KELSEY — Pres.
MR. VOSSLER
MR. EMBSER

MRS. CRONK
MRS. SCOTT

MR. McENROE
MR. DAVIS

MR. REUNING
MR. ABBOTT

Vice-principal, Mr. Rugaber, supervises our comings and goings.

they seemed dictatorial until we knew . . .

Mr. Babcock is first of all our friend, and secondly, our guidance counselor.

Mrs. Bartholomay is in charge of the aches and bruises department. Dr. Comstock is our school physician.

It is to the office of the attendance supervisor that we creep to bring excuses or whisper, "I'm late again, Mrs. Schramm."

MR. GAMBELL, Principal

Although we, as students, are inclined to feel that our presence alone keeps the school in operation, these are the people upon whom the job really rests. Most of all, we have discovered how able an administrator is Mr. Gambell, our principal.

JOAN CHANDLER,
Secretary

MARLENE HARDMAN,
Secretary

them better . . . nice people to remember . . . .

PAUL MEISSNER, Business Administrator, DORIS HORNBURG, Secretary, and RUTH ARNOLD, Secretary.

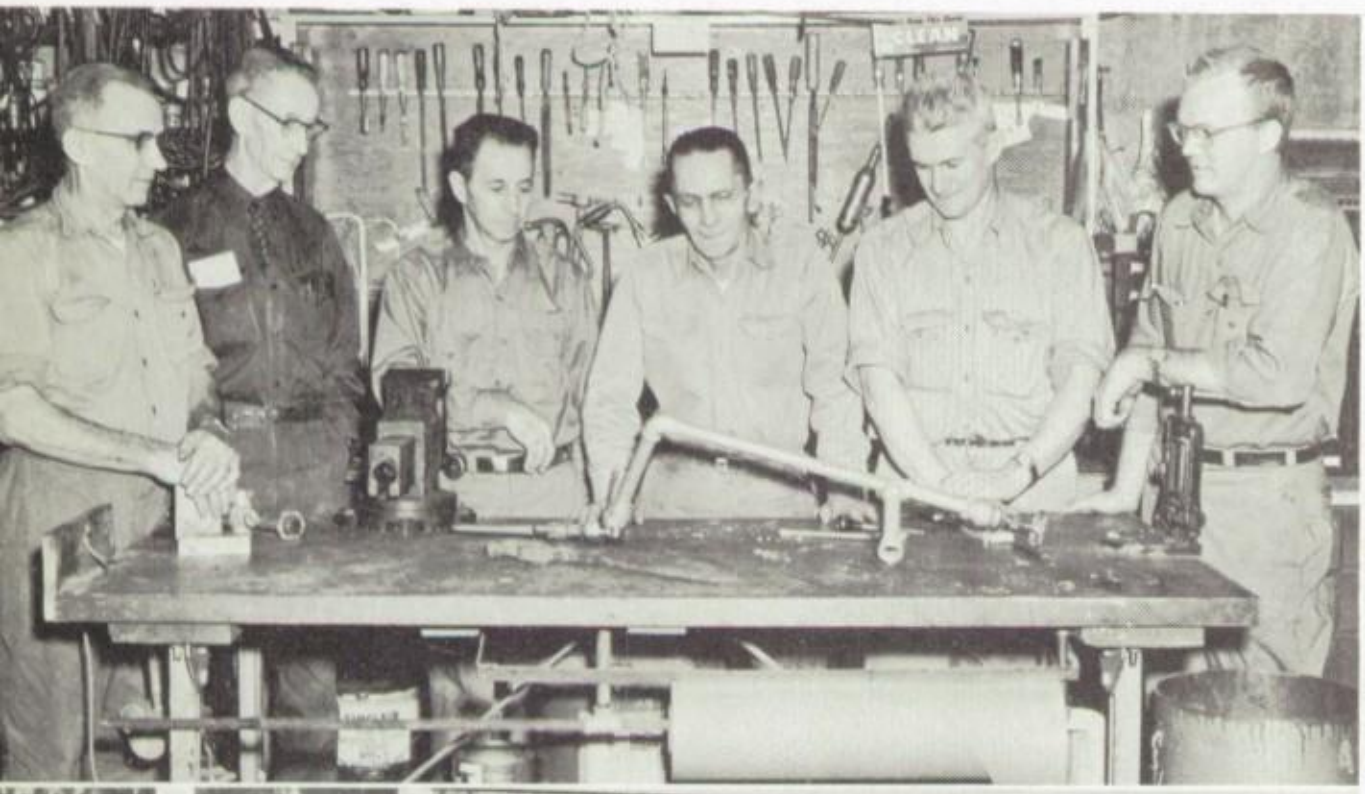
The delicious smells that waft through the halls at noontime, are the creations of the cafeteria staff, whose job it is to feed a crowd of hungry "savages" at 12:00. Left to Right Row 1: D. Graves, F. Woods, C. Ackerman, L. Hetzel (Manager), E. Hambridge.

the people behind the scenes, indispensable . . .



These are our school housekeepers. The work of our janitors continues long after we have left the halls for home. Cleaning up after us is no small task! Left to Right: Row 1: H. Meyer, P. Llewellyn, L. Peaslee, E. Ransom, C. Starr, R. Hand (Head custodian).

Is it really a fact that as soon as we enter a bus, the worst in us emerges? From pin curls and sleepy eyes in the morning, to wild energy and incessant chatter in the afternoon, the bus drivers gain enough experience to be authorities on teenage behavior. Left to Right: Row 1: J. Fortner, L. F. Clark, L. Bianco, E. Flanagan. Row 2: R. Wilcox, G. Taggart, G. Towner, R. Rogers, D. Stout, W. Simons.

How can we introduce the faculty? These people have done more than any others, with the exception of our parents, to shape our minds and personalities. They have instilled in us, a respect for knowledge, an appreciation of learning .... or, at least, we can give them an "E" for effort.

Having a highly successful season, the Lions of W.H.S. compiled a fine record of 5 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie on the 1954 gridiron. Captaining the attack upon our opponents were Don Avery, quarterback, and Dave Mitchell, center.

Aided by a strong line and a swift backfield, the team outrushed their foes 1,789 yards to 1,352 yards. Although not in the conference this year, the Lions had wins of 19-13 over Corning Northside, 27-13 over Batavia, and a 6-6 tie with Hornell, who were all in the conference.

"Release Him"

A vibrant melee of color, music and laughter—these are our memories of "The Red Mill" our junior play. "The Red Mill" is one of the gayest of Victor Herbert's operettas. Sponsored by our junior class, the presentation included students from each of the senior high grades. Approximately one hundred and fifty people were cast and many others served on the production staff. The months and months of rehearsal drudgery were repaid many times by the enthusiastic reception which the operetta received. For those of us who lived in Herbert's Holland for those two wonderful nights, "The Red Mill" symbolizes moments of unequalled exhileration and excitement.

"Wedding Chorus"

. . . our senior play . . . a Christmas comedy

Left to right: E. Morrison, C. Ives, A. Mumma, W. Hendricks.

Our senior play was "The Goose Hangs High," a Christmas comedy by Lewis Beach. Though a distinct contrast to the brilliance of our operetta, the senior play.was well received by audiences and cast.

In high school, membership in the National Honor Society is comparable to receiving a Phi Beta Kappa Key in college. Membership is limited to 5% of the junior class and 15% of the senior class. The requirements of the society are: character, scholarship, leadership and service. The National Honor Society represents the highest honor which the school confers. Right side: Mrs. Canessa, G. Wilson, P. Blaisdell, M. Scott, C. Fleschutz, K. Carpenter, R. Hill. Left side: C. Williams, G. Gardner, M. Richmond, R. Simpson, N. Christman, J. Sheldon, K. Brandes, D. Magee, M. Madden, M. Whorton, M. Steininger, R. Emerson, H. Stout, C. Mumma, R. Stevens, W. Riggs, H. Stout. Absent: L. McFadden, L. Lapolt.

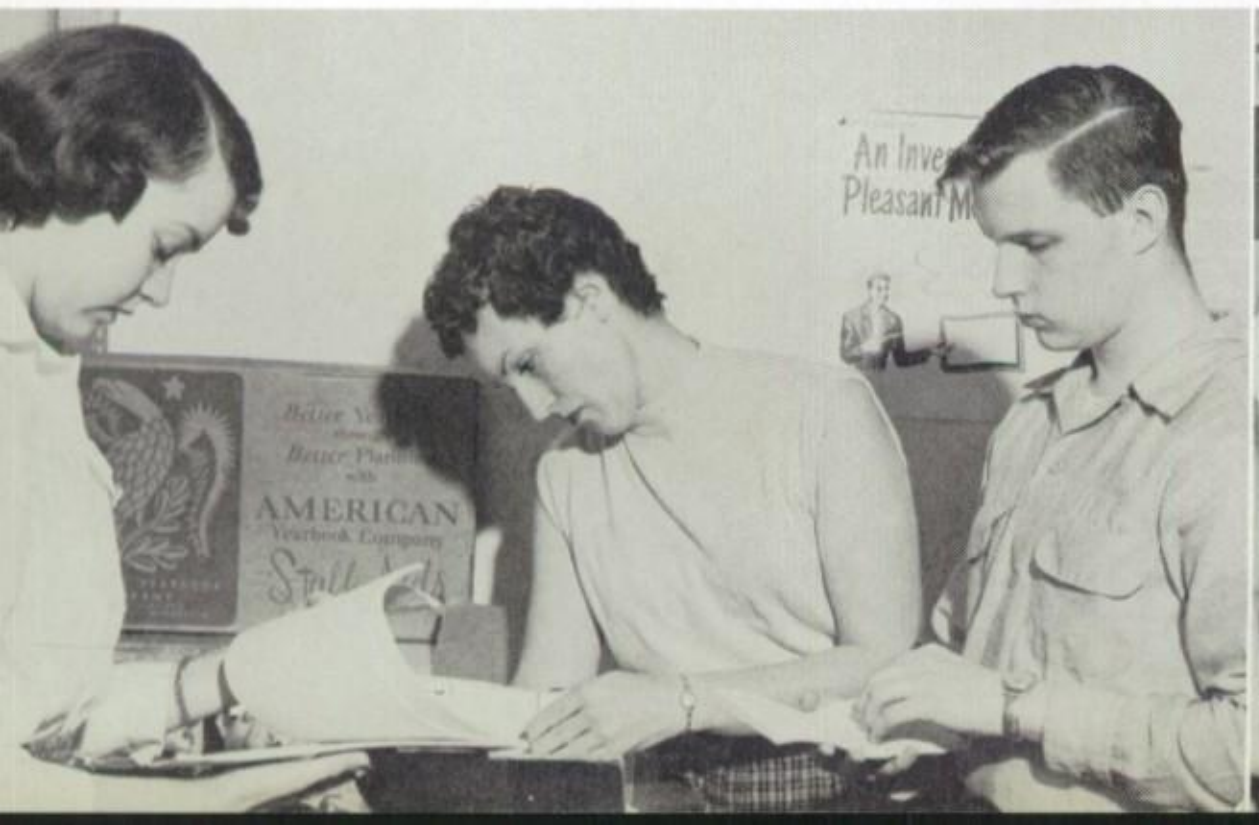
. . . highest scholastic honor . . .

The ribbons which Priscilla Blaisdell is pinning on Marshu Steininger represent the four colors of the society: white for character, gold for scholarship, purple for leadership, and green for service.

Officers Wilson, Carpenter, Fleschutz, and Scott sit before the society's symbolic emblem—the keystone and flaming torch.

Collecting our memoirs . . .

It took our combined effort to make this yearbook possible. Our work on the "Sonnontouan"staff provided us with both fun and education. Row 1: L. to R.: M. Lonsberry, J. Bethe, M. Meyer, G. Gardner (Ass't Editor), A. Mumma. Row 2: M. Scott, D. Merrifield, B. Starr, L. McFadden (Editor), C. Williams (Business Manager), Miss Ehrenzeller (Advisor). Row 3: G. Grantier, M. Richmond, C. Sullivan, R. Simpson, G. Wilson (Ass't Business Manager), P. Blaisdell. Row 4: K. Carpenter (Ass't Editor), J. Clemens, C. Young. Row 5: E. Clancy, A. Kerton, N. Smith, N. Christman, J. LaForge.



Our "Hall of Fame" . . .
